DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities:
(1) line 1, insert –a continuation of Serial No. 10/099,497, now U.S. Patent No. 6,724,811, which is- - after “This application is”; and
(2) line 2, insert - -now U.S. Patent No. 6,400,753,-- before “which is a divisional”.
Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Objections

2. Claim 21 is objected to because of the following informalities:
(1) the definitions for “x”, “m”, and “n” as recited in the claim should be given in the claim;
(2) insert –multibit- - in line 6, before “digital segment value”.
Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

Art Unit: 2634

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claim 21 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Gorski-Popiel (US 4,426,712) (whereby x, m and n are interpreted to be any number including 1 and fraction).

As shown in figures 2-4b, Gorski-Popiel discloses a system and a method for operating a GPS C/A code receiver comprising:

A plurality of channel means (column 2, lines 50-62), each comprising, means (282) for forming x multibit digital segment values per C/A code period, each multibit digital segment value representing a sequential code segment of a received composite of satellite signals (column 4, line 20-column 5, line 39); and a plurality of correlating means for correlating each multibit digital segment value with n (=10 here) satellite specific sets of m differently time delayed segments of C/A code modulation to form at least n times m time delay specific correction values (column 5, lines 35-60), where in m is greater than the number of bits (8) in each multibit digital segment value.

Double Patenting

5. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

Art Unit: 2634

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

6. Claim 21 is provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 2 of patent 6,724,811.

Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the broader application claim 21 would have been obvious in view of the narrow issued claim 2 of the patent (see In re Emert, 124 F.3d 1458, 44 USPQ2d 1149), respectively.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.
